MAHÓN WALKING TOUR

A pleasant walk through the historic center of Mahon with its Spanish - British flair and magnificent viewpoints! Since ancient times the bay of Mahon has been the object of desire of different civilizations (Carthaginians, Romans, Vandals, Byzantines, Arabs, Spanish, British, French. . . ). Situated on high cliffs, overlooking one of the largest natural harbors of the world, Mahon offers many spectacular viewpoints whereas its old town boast a melting pot of many historical buildings like the church of Saint Mary which treasures one of Europe's most important organs, the picturesque fish market and its buoyant tapas bar, the former Carmelite Cloister which houses the food market, and Commander and the Teatro Principal, one the oldest active opera theatres of Europe. Before returning to the yacht, we will taste the famous Mahón Gin, right in the place where they produce it.

CULTURES OF MENORCA

Discover the whole island of Menorca and enjoy this commercial paradise in the Balearic Sea. We will start our trip in Fornells, located at the mouth of a long bay. It is a charming fishing village where the natural beauty is underlined by the sober architecture of the white houses with green shutters.

Continue exploring Binibeca, another fishing village with a small maze of narrow cobblestone streets and two-story whitewashed houses incorporating dark natural wood, along with a small port. Where they have established a schedule so that you can visit the interior streets of the village from 11h to 20h. Finally, we can not leave Menorca without tasting its famous cheese, for this we will go to Sant Patrici, a charming little village famous for its beautiful views and locally produced Mahonese cheese that delights people from all over the world. "Caldereta de Langosta" (lobster stew) lunch on request.
